

2,200 BC Start of the Bronze Age.

1,600 BC Small villages and field systems appear

Reconstruction of bronze Age farms based on evidence from excavations at Heathrow © Wessex Archaeology

Flint was still used to make tools and weapons

Barbed and tanged arrowheads from Berkshire © Wessex Archaeology

Distinctive styles of pottery were made

A fragment of a collared urn from Wiltshire © Wessex Archaeology

Metal (bronze, copper and gold) was used to make weapons, tools and jewellery

A copper alloy finger ring from Heathrow © Wessex Archaeology

A bronze spearhead from Kent © Wessex Archaeology

Circular 'round barrows' are built. Stonehenge was finished during the Bronze Age.